KEY HIGHLIGHTS

1. Curricula with contemporary relevance

The curricula drafted by the School is contemporary, industry-relevant, community-driven and draws on reviews and suggestions from academicians, professionals, academic board and statutory professional bodies.

2. A learning-centric new paradigm of teaching methodology

- a. Self-learning – The curricula, in the aftermath of the Covid-19 pandemic has been modernised for virtual learning through a hybrid model with mandatory provisions of 20% online content, which are to be covered by students in self-learning mode.
- b. Interdisciplinary learning: The School aims to inculcate learning across disciplines and establish teaching methodologies with an interdisciplinary approach.
- c. Enhancement of academic content: The School strives to enhance the quality of academic content to meet international standards and to create content to encourage students to take up self-learning. Students will also self-learn through program-learning; watching and critiquing films on social and legal issue; reading and analysing extracts from law books, journals, articles and judgements.
- d. Experimental learning: The School provides for real-time projects for efficient experimental learning and also develops courses to bridge the curricula with practical experience.

3. Continuous and Comprehensive Evaluation to ensure more objectivity in evaluation processes

Three-part evaluation –

1. Self-Learning Evaluation: To ensure continuous evaluation and more objectivity in the evaluation processes;
2. Internal Evaluation: A blend of Class Tests, Tutorials, Moot Courts, skill-based activities like Internship, Industry-based projects, Paper presentations in peer-reviewed conferences/seminars and development of e-content; and
3. Semester End Examination: To obtain a final review of the student's knowledge of the subject, conducted with the blended methodology of physical and online modes. Students will have provisions of full/ part access to assessed material at every stage of evaluation

4. Legal Education: A Social Commitment

Social outreach through the School, its Legal Aid Cell and the carrying out of various campaigns in villages and the city of Mumbai.

5. Collaborations

The School aims at collaborating with organizations, legal firms and regulatory bodies.

6. Entrepreneurship Cell

Establishment of an entrepreneurship cell for start ups is in progress.

HSNC University has been approved by Rashtriya Uchetra Shikshan Abhiyan (RUSA) and the Govt. of Maharashtra and is a State Public University with the Hon. Governor of Maharashtra as its Chancellor, eminent industrialist, Dr. Niranjan Hiranandani as its first Provost and Dr. Hemlata K. Bagla as its first Vice-Chancellor. HSNC University comprises renowned South Mumbai colleges like H.R. College of Commerce & Economics as its Lead college with Kishinchand Chellaram College of Arts, Science and Commerce and Bombay Teacher's Training College amongst its constituent colleges.

HSNC University is set to build partnerships with industry and have a new curriculum aligned with industry. The aim will be to not only learn from the requirements of the market and have industry collaborators willing to orient students towards the same, but also to ensure internships and the best placements for its graduating students.

This multi-faceted University aims to set new paradigms of education. It wishes to harness the energy and enthusiasm of the young, dynamic population of India and guide it towards the path of learning, knowledge, research, innovation, service to society, and entrepreneurship. This newly launched State Public University is set to make an indelible mark in the field of higher education in Mumbai and the country by initiating several landmarks, and relevant and contemporary programs of study.

D.M. Harish School of Law, located at a prime location in Worli, South Mumbai, is established and managed by H(S)NC Board, which has earned national and global recognition. The objective of the School is to provide socially relevant, comprehensive and interdisciplinary legal education through its curricula, innovations and adding new interfaces to address contemporary issues.

This has been made possible by the higher education reforms agenda of RUSA – an apex body under the Ministry of Human Resources, Government of India – and the Government of Maharashtra.

H(S)NC Board decided to launch this institution to aid the growth of the students into fine lawyers and to Impart Legal Education and justice education as an instrument of change.

All the law programs at D.M. Harish School of Law are designed to create new age legal professionals by pooling the resources of experts from the legal fraternity and best of academia. The institution has a perfect blend of physical, academic and ICT facilities. The aim of D.M. Harish School of Law is to structure the constructs of pedagogy, reinforced by assignments, internships and interactions with lawyers with extensive experience.

About Late Shri. D. M. Harish

D.M. Harish School of Law is a fitting tribute to the Late Mr. D.M. Harish, the legal luminary who believed so fervently in the ethics of advocacy, painstaking study, thorough research and singular application of mind to the case on hand. He was a pioneer of legal education and legal profession in India. The essence of D.M. Harish School of Law is to structure the constructs of best pedagogy, reinforced by assignments, law cases, internships and inputs by the best legal league.

Late Mr. D.M. Harish was a distinguished advocate and a renowned authority on Income-tax Law in India. Mr. D. M. Harish had an outstanding academic career. He completed his early education in Sindh and obtained the first rank in his Matriculation Examination in the Sindh Province. He then joined D. J. Sindh College, Karachi, Sindh where he completed his B.Sc. and B.A. and was later appointed as a fellow of the college in recognition of his exceptional academic career. After the partition of India, he came to Mumbai and joined the Government Law College where he completed his LL.B. examination with a first class. He has made an immeasurable contribution to the field of law through the publication of his magnum opus, an eight-volume treatise on Income-tax Law, "D. M. Harish on Income-Tax". It was the first law book in India on CD-ROM and the internet.

Mr. D. M. Harish believed his personal success could be directly attributed to education and hard work. In his lifetime, he set up D. M. Harish Foundation as an educational trust to spread his vision. D. M. Harish Foundation has sponsored hundreds of underprivileged students at the School and University level in India and abroad, since its inception in 1991. The Foundation has particularly concerned itself with improving the quality of legal education.

Mr. D.M. Harish founded the well-known firm "D.M. Harish & Co". The firm specialises in taxation, property law and corporate law. He was the director of several public and private limited companies and a trustee of many philanthropic organisations. He was also a member of the Regional Direct Taxes Advisory Committee and the President of the Chamber of Income Tax Consultants. He was invited to speak at numerous seminars and conferences conducted by various organisations and wrote innumerable articles on legal subjects.

The late Mr. D.M. Harish is also remembered for the many battles he fought on behalf of taxpayers. The cause of education was always very dear to him and he was conscious of the fact that his personal success could be directly attributed to his education and hard work. In his lifetime, he instituted a fund for educational grants for the needy and deserving.

He is truly an inspiration to all of us and we hope to follow his footsteps and achieve our higher purpose.

Why Law?

Law offers a wide world of opportunities to any aspirant who is interested in creating a just world and serving justice. It is used as a powerful tool of social transformation and making a better world. In doing so, studying law allows aspirants to experience personal and moral satisfaction. Moreover, the field is intellectually challenging and stimulating since it enhances aspirants' critical thinking, analytical, drafting and oral advocacy skills. Law is multi-faceted comprising various practice areas including civil law, criminal law, company law, banking and insurance law, intellectual property law, property and real estate law, taxation law, foreign exchange law and family law, to name a few. Given its multi-faceted approach, law also offers diverse career options including judgeship, practicing as an advocate, legal consultancy, advisorship, human rights and environmental activism, social work and teaching.

Why study LL.B. 3 year Program at DMHSL?

A three-year program is pursued after possessing any graduation degree and thus those possessing graduation in any discipline shall be eligible for a three-year law program. They are also required to appear for an Entrance Test. Any person holding a graduation in any field i.e., Science, Engineering, B.Com or B.A., or any other program for that matter may enroll in this program. This program also opens the doors for those with years of experience to pursue law. Students get access to classroom teaching and research submissions and to courtroom practice through Moot Courts and Mock Trial Courts which are part of their curriculum. Students also undergo internships with law firms and lawyers, corporations, NGOs, and others and further enhance their knowledge of the practical aspects of the law. The positive aspect of this program is that, as the students in this program are already graduates, the School starts directly with the law subjects, whereby the existing learnings from their earlier degree programs are assimilated with the knowledge of the law to create well-rounded legal professionals. Thus, professionals in any field, graduates, and students pursuing any graduation, who are inclined to make a career in law can enrol in this program.

Why study B.A. LL.B. 5 Year Integrated Program at DMHSL?

B.A. LL.B. is a 5 Year Integrated Program which combines courses from B.A. and an LL.B. degree into a one-degree program. The duration of this program is 5 years instead of the normal 6 years required for the completion of two degrees. Students may enrol after completing the 12th Standard and after appearing for an Entrance Test. The first two years have some law subjects but the majority of subjects are from humanities i.e., sociology, political science and English. The courses offered in B.A. LL.B. Program are structurally correlated with Law Subjects or Courses. The Program is the most sought-after program for students planning to pursue career in Litigation, Human Rights Law and Social Justice.

Why study BB.A. LL.B.(Hons.) 5 Year Integrated Program at DMHSL?

BB.A. LL.B. (Hons.) is a 5 Year Integrated Program which combines a Business Administration degree and an LL.B. degree into a one-degree program. The duration of this program is 5 years instead of the normal 6 years required for the completion of two degrees. Students may enrol after completing the 12th Standard and after appearing for an Entrance Test. The first two years have some law subjects but the majority of subjects are from commerce and management i.e., Management, Marketing, Economics and Business Finance. This Program offers a comprehensive exploration of both business fundamentals and legal practices while providing a deep understanding of the intersection between the two fields and it also gives a distinct advantage in the corporate world by offering a competitive edge through this Program.
